

I do not feel that the FCC should preempt State Laws in a case like this. Also, while eating supper we used to get one or two calls each night . Since being on the "No Call List" our calls are Zero.